Thank YOU! From the 2018 Mission Team To our Northwest Tampa
Congregation Sew & Sews Group

We wish we could convey how much your sewing/knitting skills benefit the many people in Honduras. From the babies who get the knit caps and blankets at the hospital and on the mountain, to the families who receive blankets and assorted goods throughout our trip. The boys who get new t-shirts and soccer bags and the girls who are so excited to hand pick out a dress that has been so lovingly made for them. They are all so extremely thankful. Please understand that the children in the hospital sometimes do not have a sheet on their bed or a towel to dry them off after a bath, the people on the mountain have so little, what we bring are necessities that they do not have. The families who receive blankets appreciate the warmth and comfort they bring on chilly nights. The handbags you make, we fill with goodies and they are given out to many women, who love having a new bag each year. The kids will be excited to receive a bag to carry their treasured Bibles in this year. We thank God for blessing you with the talent, and we thank you for your willingness to work all year to shower these beautiful people with such a treat. If you could see the love and joy on their faces and receive the many hugs of thanks that we get, you would see just how much God is glorified through your work.

Thank you for letting us be the messengers!
