

Discussion Guide ~ 9-30-18

We are in the middle of a series called "This or That." Today we look at if we should be critical, or if we should be loving.

KEY VERSES -- Numbers 12; I Corinthians 13; John 13:34-35

Icebreaker:

Is constructive criticism a real thing, or is it just negative feedback wrapped in a disguise?

Study and Application Questions:

1. How would you define "criticism?"
2. How do we justify criticism?
3. What causes us to be critical of others?
4. Why is it not fair to be critical based on perceived faults?
5. How did Miriam and Aaron criticize Moses? What was it that really caused the criticism they cast on him?
6. How did God deal with their critical attitude toward Moses in Numbers 12?
7. How does criticism affect the person you criticize? How does it affect you when you give criticism?
8. How do we deal with criticism and the people who criticize us?
9. Skim through I Corinthians 13. What is your absolute favorite characteristic of love?
10. How do you demonstrate the love Jesus talks about in John 13:35 - where he says all men will know you are my disciples if you love one another?

Discussion Guide ~ 9-30-18

We are in the middle of a series called "This or That." Today we look at if we should be critical, or if we should be loving.

KEY VERSES -- Numbers 12; I Corinthians 13; John 13:34-35

Icebreaker:

Is constructive criticism a real thing, or is it just negative feedback wrapped in a disguise?

Study and Application Questions:

1. How would you define "criticism?"
2. How do we justify criticism?
3. What causes us to be critical of others?
4. Why is it not fair to be critical based on perceived faults?
5. How did Miriam and Aaron criticize Moses? What was it that really caused the criticism they cast on him?
6. How did God deal with their critical attitude toward Moses in Numbers 12?
7. How does criticism affect the person you criticize? How does it affect you when you give criticism?
8. How do we deal with criticism and the people who criticize us?
9. Skim through I Corinthians 13. What is your absolute favorite characteristic of love?
10. How do you demonstrate the love Jesus talks about in John 13:35 - where he says all men will know you are my disciples if you love one another?

